

PANEL DISCUSSION ON
‘RURAL LANDSCAPES: A PARADIGMM FOR HERITAGE’
ON THE INTERNATIONAL DAY OF MONUMENTS AND SITES

Centre for Studies in Museology & Sheikh-Noor-ud-Din Noorani Museum of Heritage observed World Heritage Week on November 20- 21 by organizing an exhibition 'Memory of Movement' and screening of a documentary film - “Ripples of Time”. Prof Manoj Dhar, Vice-Chancellor, University of Jammu, inaugurated the exhibition and the screening of the documentary. The documentary was a maiden attempt by the Centre to showcase the history and oral narratives of Jammu. Manu Malhotra and Dr Garima Gupta gave their technical and research outputs in the making of the documentary. Prof Poonam Chaudhary, in her welcome address, briefed the audience about the activities of the Centre and reasons for choosing the theme of the documentary. She said that the documentary film 'Ripples of Time' was an attempt to showcase the narratives of the people of Jammu displaced during the Independence of India. She also explained the theme of the exhibition 'Memory of Movement' which highlighted the line of partition, migration routes, struggle of the migrated people, war memories and cultural stories of Jammu city. She further stressed that it was the need of the hour to preserve the legacies of the people of the regions which have remained ignored and also creating traditions that will have new meaning for future generation and relevance for an increasingly diverse contemporary audience. Dr. Garima Gupta, Asstt. Professor, Deptt of English, conducted the power-point presentation of the exhibits and highlighted the importance of intangible cultural heritage and the role of youngsters in documenting as well as in spreading the Intangible Heritage. The program was witnessed by the children from various schools and colleges of Jammu. As a part of the programme, a workshop on "Techniques of documenting Intangible Heritage" is also being conducted for the students by the Centre for Studies in Museology under the abled guidance of Munish Pandit, Vice President, International Committee on Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICICH-ICOMOS). Among others, Prof R K Ganjoo, Registrar; Prof Alka Sharma, Prof Satnam Kaur, Sanjeev Mahajan, Dr Neeraj Sharma, Dr Dharmendra Magotra, Munish Pandit, Retd Maj Gen Goverdhan Singh, Col Karan Singh Jamwal, Col Virendra K Sahi, Jahangir Mir and others dignitaries from the civil society were also present on the occasion.

Photos of the event:

Certificate:

News Coverage:

Home (Index.aspx) / Campus (category/Campus)

World Heritage Week organized by Centre for Studies in Museology commences at

NOV 20, 2019

JAMMU: Centre for Studies in Museology & Sheikh-Noor-Ud-Din Noorani Museum of Heritage observes World Heritage Week. The program consisted of an exhibition 'Me screening of a documentary film - 'Ripples of Time'.

Prof. Manoj Dhar, Vice-Chancellor, UNiversity of Jammu inaugurated the exhibition and the screening of the documentary and appreciated the efforts made by the faculty Centre for Studies in Museology. The documentary was a maiden attempt by the Centre to showcase the history and oral narratives of Jammu. Manu Malhotra and Dr. Ga technical and research outputs in the making of the documentary.

Prof. Poonam Chaudhary in her welcome address briefed the audience about the activities of the Centre and reasons for choosing the theme of the documentary. She said film 'Ripples of Time' was an attempt to showcase the narratives of the people of Jammu displaced during the Independence of India. She also explained the theme of the Movement' which highlighted the line of partition, migration routes, struggle of the migrated people, war memories and cultural stories of Jammu city.

She further stressed that it was the need of the hour to preserve the legacies of the people of the regions which have remained ignored and also creating traditions that v future generation and relevance for an increasingly diverse contemporary audience.

Prof. Poonam Chaudhary also informed the audience about an attempt for the creation of an oral history archives for the preservation of oral history and she hopes that will lead in the field of conservation of Intangible Cultural Heritage.

Dr. Garima Gupta, Asstt. Professor, Dept. of English conducted the power-point presentation of the exhibits and highlighted the importance of Intangible Cultural Heritag youngsters in documenting as well as in spreading the Intangible Heritage.

The program was witnessed by the children from various schools and colleges of Jammu. As a part of the programme, a workshop on "Techniques of documenting Intang being conducted for the students by the Centre for Studies in Museology under the abled guidance of MunishPandit, Vice President, International Committee on Intangib (ICICH-ICOMOS).

Among others Prof. R.K. Ganjoo, Registrar, Prof. Alka Sharma, Prof. Satnam Kaur, Sanjeev Mahajan, Dr Neeraj Sharma, Dr. Dharmendra Magotra, Munish Pandit, Retd. M: Col. Karan Singh Jamwal, Col.Virendra K. Sahi, Jenab Jahangir Mir and many more dignitaries from the University and civil society were also present on the occasion.

Centre for Studies in Museology organizes exhibition, screening of documentary

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Nov 20: Centre for Studies in Museology & Sheikh-Noor-ud-Din Noorani Museum of Heritage is observing World Heritage Week on November 20-21 by organizing an exhibition choosing the theme of the documentary. She said that the documentary film 'Ripples of Time' was an attempt to showcase the narratives of the people of Jammu displaced during the Independence of India. She also explained the theme of the exhi-gible cultural heritage and the role of youngsters in documenting as well as in spreading the Intangible Heritage.

The program was witnessed by the children from various schools and colleges of Jammu. As a part of the programme, a workshop on "Techniques of documenting Intangible Heritage" is also being conducted for the students by the Centre for Studies in Museology under the abled guidance of Munish Pandit, Vice President, International Committee on Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICICH-ICOMOS).

Among others, Prof R K Ganjoo, Registrar; Prof Alka Sharma, Prof Satnam Kaur, Sanjeev Mahajan, Dr Neeraj Sharma, Dr Dharmendra Magotra, Munish Pandit, Retd Maj Gen Goverdhan Singh, Col Karan Singh Jamwal, Col Virendra K Sahi, Jahangir Mir and others dignitaries from the civil society were also present on the occasion.

JU Vice - Chancellor and others witnessing screening of a documentary on Wednesday.

'Memory of Movement' and screening of a documentary film - "Ripples of Time".

Prof Manoj Dhar, Vice-Chancellor, University of Jammu, inaugurated the exhibition and the screening of the documentary. The documentary was a maiden attempt by the Centre to showcase the history and oral narratives of Jammu. Manu Malhotra and Dr Garima Gupta gave their technical and research outputs in the making of the documentary.

Prof Poonam Chaudhary, in her welcome address, briefed the audience about the activities of the Centre and reasons for choosing the theme of the documentary. She said that the documentary film 'Ripples of Time' was an attempt to showcase the narratives of the people of Jammu displaced during the Independence of India. She also explained the theme of the exhibition 'Memory of Movement' which highlighted the line of partition, migration routes, struggle of the migrated people, war memories and cultural stories of Jammu city. She further stressed that it was the need of the hour to preserve the legacies of the people of the regions which have remained ignored and also creating traditions that will have new meaning for future generation and relevance for an increasingly diverse contemporary audience.

Dr. Garima Gupta, Asstt. Professor, Deptt of English, conducted the power-point presentation of the exhibits and highlighted the importance of intan-

SSP Traffic N violators, awa

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Nov 20: Continuing the Traffic Awareness Campaign, Jatinder Singh Johar, SSP Traffic NHW, Ramban along with Pankaj Soodan, DySP Traffic Doda-Kishtwar, DTI Doda Inspector Bhovinder Singh

World Heritage Week Organized By Centre for Studies in Museology Commences at JU

Share on Facebook

(https://www.facebook.com/sharer/sharer.php?u=http://www.journeyline.in/newsdet.aspx?q=186736 target=)

Share on Twitter

(https://twitter.com/intent/tweet?text=World Heritage Week Organized By Centre for Studies in Museology Commences at JU http://www.journeyline.in/newsdet.aspx?

q=186736&related=AddToAny,micropat)

Share on WhatsApp (whatsapp://send?

text=World+Heritage+Week+Organized+By+Centre+for+Studies+in+Museology+Commences+at+JU http://www.journeyline.in/newsdet.aspx?q=186736&related=AddToAny,micropat)

21/11/2019

JAMMU, NOV 20: Centre for Studies in Museology & Sheikh-Noor-Ud-Din Noorani Museum of Heritage observes World Heritage Week during 20-21 November, 2019. The program consisted of an exhibition 'Memory of Movement' and screening of a documentary film - "Ripples of Time".

Prof Manoj Dhar, Vice-Chancellor, UNiversity of Jammu inaugurated the exhibition and the screening of the documentary and appreciated the efforts made by the faculty and scholars of the Centre for Studies in Museology. The documentary was a maiden attempt by the Centre to showcase the history and oral narratives of Jammu. Mr. Manu Malhotra and Dr. Garima Gupta gave their technical and research outputs in the making of the documentary.

Prof. Poonam Chaudhary in her welcome address briefed the audience about the activities of the Centre and reasons for choosing the theme of the documentary. She said that the documentary film 'Ripples of Time' was an attempt to showcase the narratives of the people of Jammu displaced during the Independence of India. She also explained the theme of the exhibition 'Memory of Movement' which highlighted the line of partition, migration routes, struggle of the migrated people, war memories and cultural stories of Jammu city. She further stressed that it was the need of the hour to preserve the legacies of the people of the regions which have remained ignored and also creating traditions that will have new meaning for future generation and relevance for an increasingly diverse contemporary audience. Prof. Poonam Chaudhary also informed the audience about an attempt for the creation of an oral history archives for the preservation of oral history and she hopes that in the future the Centre will lead in the field of conservation of Intangible Cultural Heritage.

Dr. Garima Gupta, Asstt. Professor, Dept. of English conducted the power-point presentation of the exhibits and highlighted the importance of Intangible Cultural Heritage and the role of youngsters in documenting as well as in spreading the Intangible Heritage.

The program was witnessed by the children from various schools and colleges of Jammu. As a part of the programme, a workshop on "Techniques of documenting Intangible Heritage" is also being conducted for the students by the Centre for Studies in Museology under the able guidance of Mr. Munish Pandit, Vice President, International Committee on Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICICH/COMOS).

Among others Prof. R.K. Ganjoo, Registrar, Prof. Alka Sharma, Prof. Satnam Kaur, Sh Sanjeev Mahajan, Dr Neeraj Sharma, Dr. Dharmendra Magotra, Mr. Munish Pandit, Retd. Maj. Gen. Goverdhan Singh Ji, Col. Karan Singh Jamwal, Col. Virendra K. Sahi, Jenab Jahangir Mir and many more dignitaries from the University and civil society were also present on the occasion.